disapproved by him shall thereupon be void, and of no effect, unless approved by the President.

Congress shall within one year from the exchange of the ratifications of this treaty enact the necessary legislation to extend to the Hawaiian Islands the laws of the United States respecting duties upon imports, the internal revenue, commerce and navigation.

But until Congress shall otherwise provide, the existing commercial relations of the Hawaiian Islands, both with the United States and with foreign countries, shall continue as regards the commerce of said Islands with the rest of the United States and foreign countries, but this shall not be construed as giving to said Islands the power to enter into any new stipulation or agreement whatsoever, or to have diplomatic intercourse with any foreign government.

The consular representatives of foreign powers now resident in the Hawaiian Islands shall be permitted to continue in the exercise of their consular functions until they can receive their exequators from the government of the United States.

ART. 4. The further immigration of Chinese laborers into the Hawaiian Islands is hereby prohibited until Congress shall otherwise provide. Furthermore, Chinese persons of the classes now or hereafter excluded by law from entering the United States will not be permitted to come from the Hawaiian Islands to other parts of the United States, and if so coming shall be subject to the same penalties as if entering from a foreign country.

ART. 5. The public debt of the Hawaiian Islands lawfully existing at the date of the exchange of ratification of this treaty, including the amounts due to depositors in the Hawaiian Postal Savings Bank, is hereby assumed by the government of the United States; but the liability of the United States in this regard shall, in no case, exceed $3,250,000.

So long, however, as the existing government and the present commercial relations of the Hawaiian Islands are continued, as hereinafter provided, said government shall continue to pay the interest on said debt.

ART. 6. The government of the United States agrees to pay to Liliuokalani, the late Queen, within one year from the date of the exchange of the ratifications of this treaty the sum of $20,000, and annually thereafter a like sum of $20,000 during the term of her natural life, provided she in good faith submits to the authority of the government of the United States and the local government of the Islands.

And the government of the United States further agrees to pay to Princess Kaiulani within one year from date of the exchange of the ratifications of this treaty, the gross sum of $150,000, provided she in good faith submits to the authority of the United States and the local government of the Islands.

ART. 7. The present treaty shall be ratified by the President of the United States, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate on the one part, and by the provisional government of the Hawaiian Islands on the other, and the ratification thereof shall be exchanged at Honolulu as soon as possible.

Such exchange shall be made on the part of the United States by the commissioner herein before provided for, and it shall operate as a complete and final conveyance to the United States of all the rights of sovereignty and property herein ceded to them.

Within one month after such exchange of ratifications the provisional government shall furnish said commissioner with a full and complete schedule of all the public property herein ceded and transferred.

In witness whereof the respective plenipotentiaries have signed the above articles and have hereunto affixed their seals.

AN APPEAL FOR FUNDS.

By invitation of the Peace Societies of the United States and of Hon. Charles C. Bonney, President of the World's Congress Auxiliary of the Columbian Exposition, the Universal Peace Congress will hold its fifth annual meeting in Chicago, commencing the week beginning August 14, 1893, in connection with the International Arbitration and Peace Congress to be held under the auspices of the World's Congress Auxiliary.

While the halls and committee rooms for the several sessions will be furnished free of expense by the World's Congress Auxiliary, the Committee on Organization will necessarily be called upon for the expenditure of considerable sums of money in the printing of circulars, of propositions and papers, of programs for the Congress, of cards of membership, etc. Badges will have to be provided; materials for the Peace Exhibit will have to be gathered and arranged. Distinguished foreign guests who have been invited will have to be entertained, etc., etc. All this, as may readily be seen, will take money, and the Committee will be entirely dependent on the generosity of the friends of peace in supplying what shall be necessary. This will be a great opportunity for furthering the cause of peace, and we make this appeal confidently expecting that all the friends of peace throughout the country will respond gladly and generously.

The Committee have been fortunate in securing the services of Jonathan W. Plummer, a well-known business man of Chicago, as treasurer of the funds raised for this purpose. He will receive and hold the funds subject to the order of the Committee. Donations may be sent directly to him at 200 Randolph street, Chicago, or, where more convenient, forwarded through the proper officers of the different peace societies.
